Advantages through clarity and efficiency

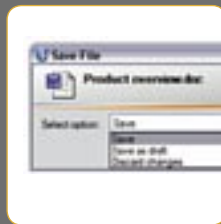

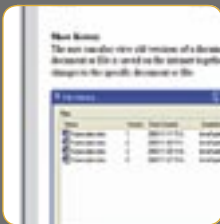

To organize information, manage files and access documents a company strategy must be based on a reliable, fast and user-friendly platform. InfoPoint is just that – and more. Version history is built automatically. You get results the safe and easy way. And you can manage and track even complicated and business-critical documents with many modifications.

Advanced, but easy to use

Are you interested in advanced file management functionality with a new approach? Do you want new possibilities within industry standards? InfoPoint uses Microsoft .NET technology and is distributed via a browser. Finding and sorting information is fast, and the system tells you if someone else is working on the document.

Features in focus

Built-in clarity

Version history is generated automatically to give you a comprehensive look on all files and documents. This will speed up collaboration and reliable customer service.

More for less

InfoPoint is a straightforward, yet comprehensive solution that paves the way for a better process.

No costly training needed

Your employees can start using InfoPoint right away. No costly training needed. No interruption in the workflow.
